1. Conferences [REDACTED] between the Assistant Director for Operations, the staff of the Commanding General, AFPAO, and the Chief of the [REDACTED] Mission have resulted in abandonment of plans for an installation at [REDACTED] because of the uncertain post-occupation feasibility of such an installation and unwillingness to burden the [REDACTED] with the construction costs entailed by it. Investigation is being made of the possibilities of Okinawa as an alternative site.

II. Accomplishment of overall mission, including firmly established individual objectives.A. Elimination of "A" Wire Service.

In compliance with a memorandum issued by the Office of the Director after appropriate investigation of the comparative value of the FBIS "A" wire service to intelligence offices, this service was eliminated as of 25 August 1947. The change will effect an annual saving of approximately $33,400.

B. Quantitative Studies of Broadcast Material. 25X6

25X6

A quantitative study of the broadcasts of [REDACTED] is in preparation with a view to illustrating the possibilities of quantitative techniques as applied to broadcast material generally.

C. Delivery of Roundups to State Department.

The roundups of European broadcast material prepared by the FBIS London Mission are being delivered by courier to the Chief of the European Division of the State Department.

III. Personnel Report.

The following tabulation covers the month ending 20 August 1947, except that in this instance it includes some actions previous to 21 July 1947 which were not covered by earlier oral reports.
